The Crescenta Valley played an important role in the wine making history of southern California.

Join Stuart Byles, author of "Los Angeles Wine" as he discusses the early history of Deukmejian Wilderness Park and the Le Mesnager family that owned the land from the 1880s until the 1960s.

Learn about the historic Le Mesnager Barn, how it was used by the family, and the City's plans for its future. View some early wine making equipment and walk through the demonstration vineyard to learn about the grapes being grown and the planned expansion of this area.

*One or two surprises are planned for attendees of this event. You must R.S.V.P. to attend.
